HI, I'M JOELLE

I am someone who believes I was born to create. I genuinely see it as my calling, and I think it might even be in my genes (my grandmother was an avid painter, my mother a ceramicist). I caught the bug at the age of 12, when I first started toying with Photoshop and getting into photography, and I now take photos almost every day.

When I am not shooting weddings, I exclusively shoot on film (I'm the proud owner of around 40 film cameras), and I find joy in capturing the beauty of my everyday life, from the way the golden morning light reflects off my coffee cup to the little folds and stains on the paper backs I carry with me everywhere. And I absolutely love film – the human, living quality of it, with its unpredictability and little imperfections.

Testimonials

"We were lucky enough to have Joelle as our wedding photographer for our wedding day last August. We knew as soon as we met up with her prior to the wedding that she would be perfect. We really wanted a photographer who wouldn't ask for lots of unnatural poses or cheesy shots. Joelle has an incredibly laid back style, which put us both completely at ease, as well as a great eye for capturing the most beautiful and candid photographs. We were both over the moon with our photographs and received so many compliments about them from friends and family. I wouldn't (and don't) hesitate to recommend her to anyone looking for a wedding photographer."

THE HEWSONS

"Joelle took some absolutely fantastic photos on our special day. We asked for a variety of styled photos and Joelle pulled them off effortlessly. Her camera work was brilliant and there were so many incredible photos to look at. Joelle's candid style approach worked well as we had a lot of guests in a small barn, but she blended in superbly. She was also very professional at shooting in low light which is tricky to do but definitely pulled it off. Thanks so much for the effort you put in on our wedding day and the time you took to edit them, we are so pleased with the final result."
